CALGARY FIRST SPIRITUALIST CHURCH SEPTEMBER 2006 NEWSLETTER

ASHA FALL TRAINING COURSE

Beginning in September of each year, ASHA instructors provide classes for those who wish to become Spiritual Healers. The 2006 eight-week introductory course begins on Monday, September 18, 2006 from 6:30 to 9:30 pm and ends on November 13, 2006 (excluding the Thanksgiving Holiday Monday). The ASHA Training Program includes the eight weeks of introductory classes, followed by a supervised probationary period of one year. The fee of $150 includes all course materials, textbook, one year internship, regular workshops, an examination and certification process, plus a full year's membership in ASHA. ASHA (the Association of Spiritual Healers of Alberta) is an affiliate member of the NFSH (National Federation of Spiritual Healers, UK), as founded by master healer, Harry Edwards. The training course involves theoretical studies but stresses a hands-on approach to a practical skill. The program is supported by CFSC and the church has guidelines that recommend ASHA certification for church healers.

WELCOME BACK

A warm welcome is extended to church members who are returning after a period of absence. The church minister, David Oliver, has undergone knee replacement surgery that required a long recovery period. Mary Jane Kapteyn has been on a leave of absence in order to complete her religious studies. The contribution that David and Mary Jane make to the work and life of the church is much appreciated, and it will be good to see them both back on the platform giving lectures, doing demonstrations of mediumship and leading circles.
